What is Affiliate Membership?

Affiliate Membership was developed for those who wish to belong to BCC but already have full membership in another synagogue.

Candidates are frequently parents, siblings and other relatives of BCC members who wish to celebrate their family members' lives in solidarity and love.

Many Affiliate Members cannot attend regularly due to distance, but feel a sense of love and gratitude for BCC and do not wish to lose their ties to us.

What are the Benefits of Affiliate Membership?

- Attending BCC's High Holy Day services by using tickets from your primary synagogue. Just show us your tickets at any of our services.
- Access to our newsletter, G'vanim.
- Receiving BCC's weekly e-bulletin.
- Receiving member announcements regarding congregational matters.
- Participate in the life of our vibrant, progressive Jewish community.

Who is the Typical Affiliate Member?

- Members of other congregations who believe in the vision and mission of BCC.
- Former members who have moved and still seek to maintain their ties.
- Supporters of BCC who wish to contribute to the health of the congregation.
- Friends of BCC who wish to take part in BCC's unique culture.

Are There Any Restrictions on Affiliate Membership?

While Affiliate Members may not vote in congregational meetings nor serve on the board, they may participate in all other aspects of congregational life.

How Much Does Affiliate Membership Cost?

$250 Annually

A Bit About BCC

In 1972 a small group of Jewish community members in Los Angeles dared to dream of a safe place to worship, to celebrate their heritage and to create community.

They called their dream Beth Chayim Chadashim, "House of New Life" -- the world's first synagogue for lesbian and gay Jews. Today, BCC is an inclusive congregation of LGBTQ+ and other Jews, our friends and families. We continue to affirm the vision of our Founders, that all people are created in B'tzelem Elohim, in G-d's image.
