Days of Awe Preparation Classes

7 pm - 8:30 pm Tuesdays during September at BCC in lieu of Torah Study

September 3rd - Rabbi Alyson Solomon

Shofar So Good - How Can the Shofar Call Us Powerfully Forward This Year? A night of text Study & art.

For 45 minutes we will dive deep into traditional texts related to the shofar and the sh'ma. For 30 min we will create artistic Soul Maps for the year ahead. For 15 minutes we will share and glean from each other's vision for the year to come. Bring your favorite art supplies to use and share.

September 10th - Cantor Juval Porat

Et Ratzon - A time of Divine Favor

Finding propitiousness in Jewish tradition

September 17 - Maggie Parkhurst

What is Selichot [and what are selichot]? The service we have late Saturday night before Rosh Hashana isn't in the Torah, and it isn't in the Talmud either. There isn't even a standard liturgy for it. So: Where did it come from? When did it originate? Why do it at midnight? For 90 minutes, we will try to answer these questions and many more in preparation for Selichot service Saturday, Sept 21.

September 24 - Rabbi RBO

Find Your Own Path to Healing: Learning with Someone Who's Been There Rabbi RBO Bat-Or, MFT and Director of JQ Helpline & Inclusion Services shares her own personal journey from illness to healing. With exercises, text, and worksheets, Rabbi RBO, a work in progress herself, helps you explore the paths available to you. From these many paths, you can choose the one that fits for you today.
